Your information will only be retained for as long as necessary. Your information will normally be deleted or destroyed within 2 years after the end of your relationship with us, or 7 years in the case of financial records.

Marketing

We will not pass your information on to a third party for marketing purposes. Whenever we collect information which may be used for marketing, we will inform you and you will have the opportunity to opt in or out. At any time, you have the right to stop us from contacting you for marketing purposes; you can do this by email or post (see contact details below).

Access to your information

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. To request this information you can email volunteer@causewayvc.org or write to us at the address below. You can make a request using our standard form – please click here to access. You are not obliged to use this form to make a request, but doing so will make it quicker and easier for us to respond.

We will require proof of your identity before the information can be given. There is no charge for this service. We aim to reply as promptly as possible within one month of the request. Some more complicated requests may take longer; you will be advised if this is the case. Requests which are unfounded, excessive or unreasonable may be refused and you will be advised if this is the case.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate.

How to complain about our handling of your information

If you are not happy with the way we have handled your information, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). Information about how to make a complaint can be found at www.ico.org.uk.
